Message from the Chief Academic Officer

Dear HPA families,

As you know it is Teacher Appreciation Week and I want to join you in thanking our devoted, committed, hardworking, and passionate staff for everything that they do for our students at HPA. All of the wonderful learning experiences and programming that we offer would not be possible without their enthusiasm, dedication, and passion. I am truly blessed to be working alongside such a wonderful faculty and staff.

It's hard to believe that we are so close to the end of this school year. There's so much excitement in the building as we prepare for the many end of year happenings and we want to make sure that you are aware of all the exciting events planned.

PTO's Scholastic Book Fair is currently set up in the library to provide our students access to their great books and games. Big thanks to the PTO volunteers that have given their time to make the book fair possible. We also have our annual Talent Show this evening. It promises to be a great show and I hope you can attend.

As we look to the next couple of weeks:

Our sixth graders will spend the last week of school in Estes Park, exploring the outdoors and the wonders of nature. For many students this will be their first time away from home, for some it is their first time in the wilderness, for all of them, it is an opportunity to learn about themselves, their classmates by spending time outside their classroom and building walls. Each year we see them return filled to triumph and memories that they will cherish for years to come.

Next week will see the rigorous and thoughtful work and thinking of our 7th graders when they present their TED-TALK inspired presentations. The seventh graders have worked hard to research a topic and present their original thinking about a topic or concept. These students are an example of the power of inquiry and the ways asking questions can grow your thinking and understanding of the world around us.

Our 8th graders will have their final chance to shine during our 8th grade continuation ceremony on May 25th. Each year our advisors work hard to highlight the special attributes of each student and send the students off with wonderful memories and hopes for the future. We are excited to celebrate our graduates who are very ready for high school next year.

Kindergarten continuation ceremonies are the last week of school as well. Our Kindergarteners have demonstrated their readiness for 1st grade and have grown so much as readers, writers, mathematicians and scholars. The Kindergarten team has done an extraordinary job instilling a desire in their students to be life-long learners.

And last, but certainly not least, we have our end of year award ceremonies for students in grades 1-7. These ceremonies acknowledge the hard work and performance of students in their last quarter of school as well as all year long.

Phew... as you can see, there's still a lot of amazing events yet to come this school year. And, while the end of the school year is in sight, we are maintaining high levels of academic rigor and behavioral expectations. We thank you for supporting your child in completing the school year successfully.

With husky pride,

Ms. Keri Melmed

Chief Academic Officer/Principal

Donation and Volunteer Opportunities

NEEDED! Garden Volunteers: Spring is fast approaching and we are in need of garden volunteers. This is the perfect opportunity to gain volunteer hours and be a part of the Garden to Cafeteria program. Working with our garden coordinator, students grow fresh fruits and vegetables in our garden and supply some of the harvest to the school cafeteria to be used at lunch service. Be a part of this volunteer opportunity by contacting Barbara Hill at bhill@highpointacademy.net.

Don't forget to log your volunteer hours in Help Counter.
